CIA Director's Mother Dies

CPYRGHT

Mrs William F. Raborn sr., mother of retired Vice Admiral F. Raborn jr., and a former Oklahoma City resident, died in San Antonio, Texas, Wednesday, at the age of 90.

Admiral Raborn is director of the Central Intelligence Agency, and was assistant chief of Atlantic Operations during his navy career.

Mrs. Raborn was a native of Prescott, Ark. She and her late husband and their eight children lived in Oklahoma City for 15 years until 1954, when they moved to San Antonio. They formerly lived at 2217 NW 13.

Services will be Friday at the Porter Loring Funeral Home in San Antonio with burial in Sunset Memorial Park Cemetery there.

Survivors include the six sons and two daughters, 20 grandchildren and 15 great-grandchildren.
